

ARTICLE APPEARED
ON PAGE 3-A

WASHINGTON TIMES
7 February 1985

Loses libel suit

E. Howard Hunt, convicted Watergate conspirator, wears frown as he leaves federal court in Miami yesterday with his attorney's secretary Barbara Henler after jury found he wasn't libeled by article linking him to assassination of President John F. Kennedy. Hunt had sued the right-wing tabloid The Spotlight for $1 million, claiming it libeled him by printing the article. Earlier trial verdict in his favor was overturned on appeal.

UPI